Constitutional Court Decisions

KMQ1 According to Article 20.14.1 of the Law of the Republic of Azerbaijan dated February 7, 2006, when calculating the pension of servicemen based on the length of service, the part of military service considered to be honorable for military servicemen who served in 1992 "Pension Provision for Military Servicemen" force should be taken into account.

KMQ2 1. In accordance with the provisions of Articles 1.0.1, 20.1.11, 20.14 and 22.4 of the Law of the Republic of Azerbaijan "On Labor Pensions", paragraph 1 of the "Rules for the Amount and Determination of the Salary, Additional Salary, Compensation and Other Payments Provided to Police Officers of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Azerbaijan for Years of Service" approved by the Resolution No. 73 of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Azerbaijan dated April 20, 2000, and paragraph 1 and 6 of the "Rules for the Calculation of Years of Service for the Payment of Salary for Years of Continuous Service to Internal Affairs Bodies" approved by the Resolution No. 98 of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Azerbaijan dated July 1998, the re-inclusion of the grace period of service in the years of continuous service in connection with the determination and calculation of pensions is inadmissible, since it results in the actual recalculation of the grace period taken into account when determining the pension.

2. The provision of "subsequent increases" specified in Article 20 of the Law of the Republic of Azerbaijan "On Labor Pensions" does not apply to the increases in the wages, social security costs, and state salaries that a person with the right to a pension received in his position at the time and were included in the payments made.

3. According to the requirements of Articles 1.0.1, 1.0.2, 1.0.5, 9.5 and 20.14 of the Law of the Republic of Azerbaijan "On Labor Pensions", when assigning a pension to a person or when recalculating it after its assignment, increases made to supplement the pension that were not received during the period of service, employment or retirement and that are not subject to compulsory state social insurance are not taken into account. (Decision of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Azerbaijan dated May 15, 2020)

KMQ3 1. Recalculation of the pension of labor pensioners who continue their military service after the labor pension assigned is carried out from the date of application only according to the insurance pension capital registered in their individual accounts in accordance with the requirements of Article 9.6 of the Law of the Republic of Azerbaijan "On Labor Pensions". The addition of military service to the length of service is determined based on the final provision cost when they are first discharged from military service.

2. Article 37.3.1 of the Law of the Republic of Azerbaijan " On Labor Pensions " determines the procedure for recalculation of the pension of all persons entitled to a pension by age, as well as military personnel who have retired on preferential terms but continue their labor activity in another field.

3. Article 9.6 of the Law of the Republic of Azerbaijan "On Labor Pensions" does not contradict Part I of Article 13, Article 14, Part I and IV of Article 29, Parts I and III of Article 38, Parts I and III of Article 149 of the Constitution of the Republic of Azerbaijan. (Decision of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Azerbaijan dated February 2, 2022 – "Respublika" newspaper, February 8, 2022)

Article 26. Recalculation of labor pension assigned before the date of entry into force of the Law

26.1. The total amount of the labor pension (including all supplements, compensations related to the cancellation of various benefits and other payments) assigned until the date of entry into force of this Law shall be conditionally converted in accordance with the provisions of this Law without changing it. For this purpose, the amount remaining after deducting the base part of the labor pension determined by the legislation from the total amount of the labor pension (including all supplements, compensations related to the cancellation of various benefits and other payments) assigned until the date of entry into force of the Law shall be determined as the insurance part of the labor pension.

26.2. The labor pension calculated by applying a restriction to the relevant average monthly salary (three times the average monthly salary approved for pension calculation in the country) until the date of entry into force of this Law shall be recalculated based on the full amount of that salary.

Note: Article 26.2 shall apply from January 1, 2008 and shall not apply to the calculation, indexation and payment of pensions for the period up to that date.

26.3. If the total amount of the labor pension (including all supplements, compensations related to the cancellation of various benefits and other payments) established before the date of entry into force of this Law is lower than the amount of the basic part of the labor pension established by the legislation, the new amount of the labor pension shall be equal to the amount of the basic part of the labor pension established by the legislation.

26.3-1. Labor pensions of persons who retired before January 1, 2006 (except for persons who were assigned supplements to labor pensions for length of service in accordance with Article 20 of this Law) shall be recalculated from July 1, 2011, with the insurance portion determined at 1.94 manat for each year of service taken into account as of the date of assignment of the pension (if the year is not complete, this amount shall be calculated in proportion to the number of months of service in the incomplete year).

26.3-2. For persons who retired before January 1, 2006 and then continued their work, the insurance portion of 1.94 manats for each year of work experience from the date of pension assignment to January 1, 2006 (if the year is not complete, this amount is calculated in proportion to the number of months of work experience in the incomplete year) is determined and taken into account in the recalculation of the insurance portion of their pensions from July 1, 2011.

26.3-3. When recalculating the labor pensions of persons who retired before January 1, 2006 (except for persons who have been granted supplements to their pensions based on length of service pursuant to Article 20 of this Law), the amount recalculated and higher than the existing pension amounts shall be taken as the basis for determining the pension.

26.4. After deducting three times the average monthly salary approved for calculating pensions in the country until the date of entry into force of this Law from total amount of pensions (including all supplements and other payments) of the persons specified in Articles 20.1.1–20.1.21 of this Law, the remaining amount shall be determined as a supplement to the labor pension for length of service.

26.5. The amount remaining after deducting the base part of the labor pension determined by legislation from the triple amount of the average monthly salary approved for calculating pensions in the country until the date of entry into force of this Law shall be determined as the insurance part of the labor pension of the persons specified in Articles 20.1.1–20.1.21 of this Law.

26.6. In connection with the entry into force of this Law, the bonuses determined by Article 19 of this Law shall be calculated on the base part of the labor pension.
